20 “(ii) If the child of an individual who is de-21 scribed in paragraph (1)(B)(iii) attains age 26
22 at a time when the child is a qualifying post-23 secondary school student (as defined in sub-24 paragraph (A) of this paragraph and without 25 application of subparagraph (B) of this paragraph) on the basis of the child's attendance at a post-secondary school or a comprehensive transition and postsecondary program (as such terms are defined in subparagraph (C)) but has not (at such time) completed the requirements for, or received, a diploma or equivalent certificate from such school or program shall be deemed (for purposes of determining whether the child's entitlement to benefits under this subsection has terminated under paragraph (1)(F) and for purposes of determining the child's initial entitlement to such benefits under clause (iii) of paragraph (1)(B)) not to have attained such age until the first day of the first month following the end of the quarter or semester in which the child is enrolled at such time (or, if the post-secondary school or comprehensive transition and postsecondary program (as so defined) in which the child is enrolled is not operated on a quarter or semester system, until the first day of the first month following the completion of the courses in which the child is so enrolled on the date the child attains age 26 or until the first day of the third

1 month beginning after such time, whichever
2 first occurs).”.

3 (e) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by 4 this section shall take effect on the date of enactment of 5 this Act, and shall apply to applications for child’s insur-
6 ance benefits under title II of the Social Security Act (42 7 U.S.C. 401 et seq.) filed on or after such date.
